Date: December 14, 2020
Item No: 6.

NORTH LAS VEGAS LIBRARY DISTRICT AGENDA ITEM

AGENDA TITLE: Approve an Amendment to the Library Fine Policy to Increase the Outstanding Fine Threshold from a Maximum of $2 to a Maximum of $10. (For Possible Action) REQUESTED BY: Forrest Lewis, Library Director RECOMMENDATION OR RECOMMENDED MOTION: That the Board approves the amendment to the library's outstanding fine threshold policy, increasing the current $2 fine maximum to a $10 fine maximum. FISCAL IMPACT: Amount: N/A Account Number: Explanation: Vinder our current policy, patrons lose access to library services after exceeding $2 in fines on their account. This includes access to our databases. Especially in light of the lingering negative effects of COVID-19, we would like to expand the maximum threshold to $10. This is in line with surrounding library districts, and will not remove any existing or future fines. Respectfully Submitted by,
REQUESTED BY: Forrest Lewis, Library Director RECOMMENDATION OR RECOMMENDED MOTION: That the Board approves the amendment to the library's outstanding fine threshold policy, increasing the current $2 fine maximum to a $10 fine maximum. FISCAL IMPACT: Amount: N/A Account Number: Explanation: STAFF COMMENTS & BACKGROUND INFORMATION: Under our current policy, patrons lose access to library services after exceeding $2 in fines on their account. This includes access to circulating materials, computer usage, and access to our databases. Especially in light of the lingering negative effects of COVID-19, we would like to expand the maximum threshold to $10. This is in line with surrounding library districts, and will not remove any existing or future fines.	AGENDA TITLE:
REQUESTED BY: Forrest Lewis, Library Director RECOMMENDATION OR RECOMMENDED MOTION: That the Board approves the amendment to the library's outstanding fine threshold policy, increasing the current $2 fine maximum to a $10 fine maximum. FISCAL IMPACT: Amount: N/A Account Number: Explanation: STAFF COMMENTS & BACKGROUND INFORMATION: Under our current policy, patrons lose access to library services after exceeding $2 in fines on their account. This includes access to circulating materials, computer usage, and access to our databases. Especially in light of the lingering negative effects of COVID-19, we would like to expand the maximum threshold to $10. This is in line with surrounding library districts, and will not remove any existing or future fines.
RECOMMENDATION OR RECOMMENDED MOTION: That the Board approves the amendment to the library's outstanding fine threshold policy, increasing the current $2 fine maximum to a $10 fine maximum. FISCAL IMPACT: Amount: N/A Account Number: Explanation: Under our current policy, patrons lose access to library services after exceeding $2 in fines on their account. This includes access to circulating materials, computer usage, and access to our databases. Especially in light of the lingering negative effects of COVID-19, we would like to expand the maximum threshold to $10. This is in line with surrounding library districts, and will not remove any existing or future fines.		Maximum of $10. (For Possible Action)
RECOMMENDATION OR RECOMMENDED MOTION: That the Board approves the amendment to the library's outstanding fine threshold policy, increasing the current $2 fine maximum to a $10 fine maximum. FISCAL IMPACT: Amount: N/A Account Number: Explanation: Under our current policy, patrons lose access to library services after exceeding $2 in fines on their account. This includes access to circulating materials, computer usage, and access to our databases. Especially in light of the lingering negative effects of COVID-19, we would like to expand the maximum threshold to $10. This is in line with surrounding library districts, and will not remove any existing or future fines.
RECOMMENDATION OR RECOMMENDED MOTION: That the Board approves the amendment to the library's outstanding fine threshold policy, increasing the current $2 fine maximum to a $10 fine maximum. FISCAL IMPACT: Amount: N/A Account Number: Explanation: Under our current policy, patrons lose access to library services after exceeding $2 in fines on their account. This includes access to circulating materials, computer usage, and access to our databases. Especially in light of the lingering negative effects of COVID-19, we would like to expand the maximum threshold to $10. This is in line with surrounding library districts, and will not remove any existing or future fines.		1=
That the Board approves the amendment to the library's outstanding fine threshold policy, increasing the current $2 fine maximum to a $10 fine maximum. FISCAL IMPACT: Amount: N/A Account Number: Explanation: Under our current policy, patrons lose access to library services after exceeding $2 in fines on their account. This includes access to our databases. Especially in light of the lingering negative effects of COVID-19, we would like to expand the maximum threshold to $10. This is in line with surrounding library districts, and will not remove any existing or future fines.	REQUESTED BY:	Forrest Lewis, Library Director
That the Board approves the amendment to the library's outstanding fine threshold policy, increasing the current $2 fine maximum to a $10 fine maximum. FISCAL IMPACT: Amount: N/A Account Number: Explanation: Under our current policy, patrons lose access to library services after exceeding $2 in fines on their account. This includes access to our databases. Especially in light of the lingering negative effects of COVID-19, we would like to expand the maximum threshold to $10. This is in line with surrounding library districts, and will not remove any existing or future fines.
FISCAL IMPACT: Amount: N/A Account Number: Explanation: Under our current policy, patrons lose access to library services after exceeding $2 in fines on their account. This includes access to circulating materials, computer usage, and access to our databases. Especially in light of the lingering negative effects of COVID-19, we would like to expand the maximum threshold to $10. This is in line with surrounding library districts, and will not remove any existing or future fines.
FISCAL IMPACT: Amount: N/A Account Number: Explanation: Under our current policy, patrons lose access to library services after exceeding $2 in fines on their account. This includes access to circulating materials, computer usage, and access to our databases. Especially in light of the lingering negative effects of COVID-19, we would like to expand the maximum threshold to $10. This is in line with surrounding library districts, and will not remove any existing or future fines.	, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,
Account Number: Explanation: Under our current policy, patrons lose access to library services after exceeding $2 in fines on their account. This includes access to circulating materials, computer usage, and access to our databases. Especially in light of the lingering negative effects of COVID-19, we would like to expand the maximum threshold to $10. This is in line with surrounding library districts, and will not remove any existing or future fines.	policy, increasing the current $2 fine maximum to a $10 fine maximum.
Account Number: Explanation: Under our current policy, patrons lose access to library services after exceeding $2 in fines on their account. This includes access to circulating materials, computer usage, and access to our databases. Especially in light of the lingering negative effects of COVID-19, we would like to expand the maximum threshold to $10. This is in line with surrounding library districts, and will not remove any existing or future fines.
Account Number: Explanation: Under our current policy, patrons lose access to library services after exceeding $2 in fines on their account. This includes access to circulating materials, computer usage, and access to our databases. Especially in light of the lingering negative effects of COVID-19, we would like to expand the maximum threshold to $10. This is in line with surrounding library districts, and will not remove any existing or future fines.
Account Number: Explanation: Under our current policy, patrons lose access to library services after exceeding $2 in fines on their account. This includes access to circulating materials, computer usage, and access to our databases. Especially in light of the lingering negative effects of COVID-19, we would like to expand the maximum threshold to $10. This is in line with surrounding library districts, and will not remove any existing or future fines.
Account Number: Explanation: Under our current policy, patrons lose access to library services after exceeding $2 in fines on their account. This includes access to circulating materials, computer usage, and access to our databases. Especially in light of the lingering negative effects of COVID-19, we would like to expand the maximum threshold to $10. This is in line with surrounding library districts, and will not remove any existing or future fines.	FICCAL IMPACT.	A	NI/A
STAFF COMMENTS & BACKGROUND INFORMATION: Under our current policy, patrons lose access to library services after exceeding $2 in fines on their account. This includes access to circulating materials, computer usage, and access to our databases. Especially in light of the lingering negative effects of COVID-19, we would like to expand the maximum threshold to $10. This is in line with surrounding library districts, and will not remove any existing or future fines.	FISCAL IMPACT:		N/A
STAFF COMMENTS & BACKGROUND INFORMATION: Under our current policy, patrons lose access to library services after exceeding $2 in fines on their account. This includes access to circulating materials, computer usage, and access to our databases. Especially in light of the lingering negative effects of COVID-19, we would like to expand the maximum threshold to $10. This is in line with surrounding library districts, and will not remove any existing or future fines.		7 10 0 0 0 1110
STAFF COMMENTS & BACKGROUND INFORMATION: Under our current policy, patrons lose access to library services after exceeding $2 in fines on their account. This includes access to circulating materials, computer usage, and access to our databases. Especially in light of the lingering negative effects of COVID-19, we would like to expand the maximum threshold to $10. This is in line with surrounding library districts, and will not remove any existing or future fines.
Services after exceeding $2 in fines on their account. This includes access to circulating materials, computer usage, and access to our databases. Especially in light of the lingering negative effects of COVID-19, we would like to expand the maximum threshold to $10. This is in line with surrounding library districts, and will not remove any existing or future fines.		Explanation:
Services after exceeding $2 in fines on their account. This includes access to circulating materials, computer usage, and access to our databases. Especially in light of the lingering negative effects of COVID-19, we would like to expand the maximum threshold to $10. This is in line with surrounding library districts, and will not remove any existing or future fines.
Services after exceeding $2 in fines on their account. This includes access to circulating materials, computer usage, and access to our databases. Especially in light of the lingering negative effects of COVID-19, we would like to expand the maximum threshold to $10. This is in line with surrounding library districts, and will not remove any existing or future fines.
includes access to circulating materials, computer usage, and access to our databases. Especially in light of the lingering negative effects of COVID-19, we would like to expand the maximum threshold to $10. This is in line with surrounding library districts, and will not remove any existing or future fines.	STAFF	Under our current policy, patrons lose access to library access to our databases. Especially in light of the lingering negative effects of COVID-19, we would like to expand the maximum threshold to $10. This is in line with surrounding library districts, and will not remove any existing or future fines.	COMMENTS & negative effects of COVID-19, we would like to expand the maximum threshold to $10. This is in line with surrounding library districts, and will not remove any existing or future fines.	BACKGROUND
maximum threshold to $10. This is in line with surrounding library districts, and will not remove any existing or future fines.	INFORMATION:
library districts, and will not remove any existing or future fines.
		maximum threshold to $10. This is in line with surrounding
Respectfully Submitted by,		library districts, and will not remove any existing or future fines.
Respectfully Submitted by,
	Respectfully Submi	itted by,

Forrest Lewis Library Director